

Living Mercy

In The Jubilee Year of Mercy

Pope Francis has proclaimed a Year of Mercy to bring attention to the Church's teaching and activities with regard to mercy. Find out what the Ignatian Volunteer Corps of New England does in a spirit of love, justice and mercy by coming to a gathering of friends and supporters.

Date: Wednesday, March 2

Time: 7:00 – 8:30 PM

Place: Boston College High School
150 Morrissey Blvd (Main Entrance)

Soda, beer, wine and appetizers will be provided

Featured Speaker:

Fr. Frank R. Herrmann, SJ, Associate Professor, Boston College Law School

Fr. Frank holds an A.B. from Fordham University, an M.Div. from Woodstock College, and a J.D. from Boston College Law School. He joined the BC Law School faculty in 1991. Prior to BC he spent more than ten years as a criminal defense lawyer involved in both trial and appellate cases. He teaches Evidence, Advanced Criminal Procedure, Criminal Process, and Introduction to Lawyering and Professional Responsibility; is a supervising attorney in the BC Law Criminal Defender Program; supervises second and third year law students who represent indigent clients in courts throughout the Greater Boston area, especially in the Dorchester District Court.

IVC Volunteer Panelists:

Bill Sheehan, NECAT

Larry Feeney, Cristo Rey High School

Maureen Bailey, Irish International Immigrant Center

Jim Tracy, St. Francis House

+++

RSVP: Michael McGonagle; mcgonagle@bchigh.edu

IVC-NE provides women and men fifty years and older opportunities to work in service to persons of low income, lending their skills and experience to educational and social service agencies, and parishes.

Find out more at: ivcusa.org