

Celebrating St. Ignatius

Praying with excerpts from the writings of St.
Ignatius of Loyola

With spiritual reflections by
Fr. Eddie Gros, SJ

And music by mezzo-soprano Lisa LaFleur Schillace and pianist/organist Paul Wattigny, both of Immaculate Conception Jesuit Church

Sunday, August 1, 2021, at 4:00 pm
Holy Name of Jesus Church
6367 St. Charles Avenue

Presented by Ignatian Volunteer Corps of New Orleans with support from The Jesuits of New Orleans and Holy Name of Jesus Church

Join us as we listen to and reflect on some of the most important spiritual writings of St. Ignatius Loyola foundational to the practice of Ignatian Spirituality that millions of believers around the world have enjoyed for the past 500 years!

Free and open to the public!

Also available online at:

<http://www.youtube.com/c/HNJChurchNewOrleans>

The Ignatian Volunteer Corps (IVC) provides retired men and women aged 50 or better with the opportunity to serve the needs of people who are poor, to work for a more just society, and to grow deeper in Christian faith by reflecting and praying in the Ignatian tradition.

www.ivcusa.org/neworleans

Lisa LaFleur Schillace, New Orleans Director

(504) 264-3438 *

lschillace@ivcusa.org

IGNATIANT YEAR
MAY 20, 2021 — AMDG — JULY 31, 2022
THE JESUITS OF NEW ORLEANS

HOLY NAME of JESUS CHURCH
A Community for Others